ANNOUNCEMENT.

Commencing with the next issue, the SYLVER BELT will be published on Thursday of each week. The change is made necessary by the present mail service, there being no Sunday service over the Fort Thomas & Globe route, and the mail sent out from Globe on Saturday is detained at Fort Thomas over Sunday. The change of our publication day, therefore, will prove advantageous to subscribers at a distance. The SILVER BELT will be mailed hereafter on Thursday and reach subscribers in the Territory before the close of the week.

LOCAL NEWS.

Company A will assemble at the armory February 22 for parade.

William Townsend, an employe at the Buffalo smelter, is quite sick with E. H. Cook, Superintendent of the United Globe Mines, went to Tucson on Tuesday. Messrs. Fruin and Cummings, carpenters, left Wednesday, overland, for Southern Utah.

G. S. Van Wagenen is having his building extended in the rear, to accommodate a growing business.

A clean shave. Where? At Dimock's, Broad street, three doors south of the bridge.

An invitation masquerade ball will be given by some of our Mexican citizens, on the evening of February 29, at the Rink.

Ed Lyell, who went to Pinal county last week to look after his mining and cattle interests near Cottonwood, is expected home in a day or two.

The postoffice will be removed about March 1 into the new building opposite the present site. The office will be nicely fitted up and sixty new lock boxes added.

Mrs. Louis Sultan and Mrs. M. Borpresent during the carnival, Miss Emma Moreno will accompany them as far as Tucson, where she goes on a visit to friends.

One day last week the wife of J. D. Henderson shot a fox that had come into the yard and caused commotion among her poultry. The fox was evidently sick and the chickens were trooping after it cackling at a great

The postmaster is in receipt of a letter from D. G. Chilson, one of four brothers who, in the early days of this camp, located and mined the Silver Nugget claim at Richmond Basin. The mine proved a bonanza. Chunks of silver were picked up on the surface and $80,000 in nuggets was shipped at one time. "Gib" inquires about Jack Eaton and Judge Hackney tf and wants to know if the Silver BELT is still alive. We will send him a copy of this issue to show that we are still on terra firma and pushing a faber in the interests of Globe district and Gila county. Mr. Chilson, who is now located in Loomiston, Washington, Tremble. expresses a desire to return to Globe. He will be welcomed by his old-time acquaintances.
